1972

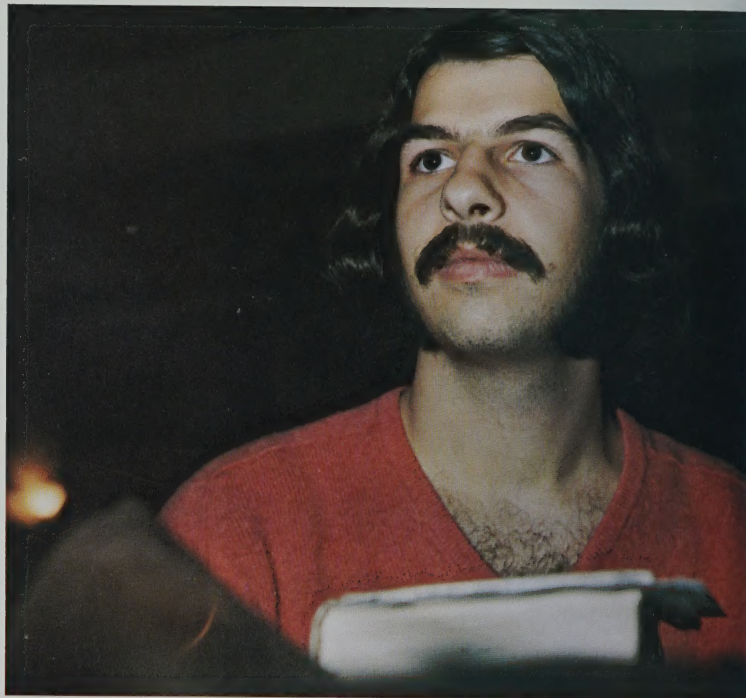

THE CITY LIBRARY
SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

We have only just begun . . .

*A kiss for luck
and we're on
'our way*

We start out walking and learn to run

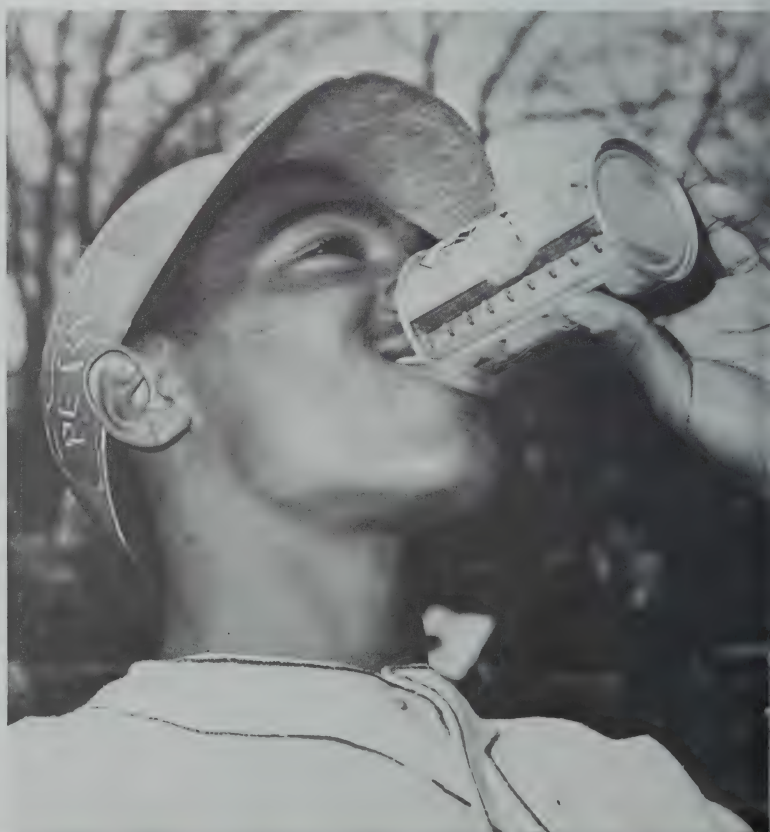

Working together day to day

Watching signs along the way

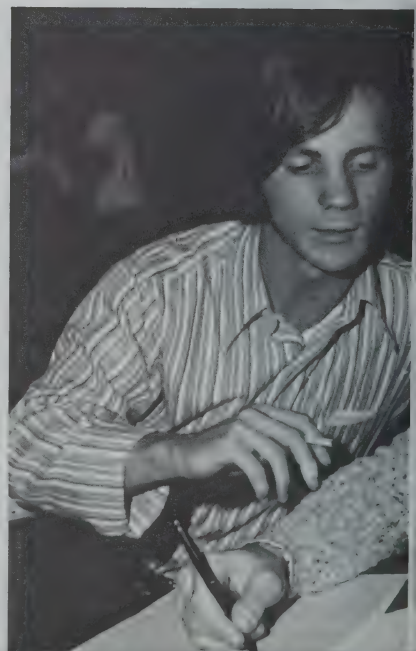

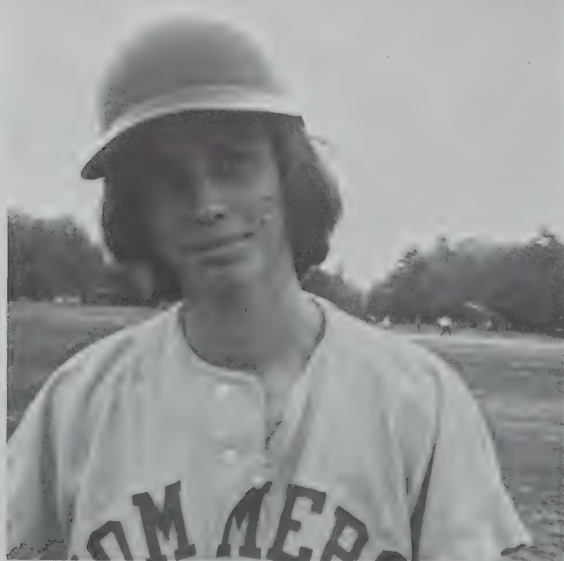

So many roads to choose

And when the evening comes we smile

So much of life ahead

Class Will

We, the great Class of '72, feel that it is of the utmost importance that we leave our final will and testament in writing to the future senior classes of this institution.

Being of fairly sound mind, we, the great Class of '72, do officially bequeath the following to those we leave behind.

1. To Mr. McWha — a book entitled "All You Wanted to Know About Computers but Were Afraid to Ask."
2. To Mr. Ciesluk — a year's supply of film.
3. The entire Class of '72 leaves the Juniors and Freshmen in the crowded locker rooms yelling, "There must be a better way."
4. To Miss Blakeslee — we leave a pair of P. F. Flyers.
5. John Parisi leaves to Mr. Taylor the name and telephone number of his hair dresser.
6. To Mr. Sweeney, Mr. Troy, and Dr. Midura — Debbie Curran leaves the stairwell clean of cigarette butts.
7. Larry Daniels leaves Mr. Mazurowski with some better mid-test jokes.
8. Heather Brundrett leaves Mr. Tenzar with a hundred new quotes and a marriage license.
9. Marion Jacques leaves Mr. Gormally a new dish rag for the cafeteria.
10. The Future Nurses Club leaves Mrs. Bennett with an ambitious group for next year.
11. Karen Henry leaves Mr. Forrant a new belt for his pants.
12. Mary Figiel leaves Mr. Gordon a year's supply of yardsticks.
13. Lynn Etheridge finally leaves the absentee bulletin.
14. To Mr. Kelliher — we leave a gift certificate for a crewcut.
15. To Mr. Sweeney — a pair of two-toned boots to go with his double knits.
16. Tommy Walker leaves next year's senior class a lot of luck but very little money.
17. Jean, Grace, Maureen, Karen, and Sue leave Mr. Phillips still looking for their smoking spot.
18. Gloria Watson leaves the Commerce locker room full of smoke.
19. The Class of '72 leaves the cooks in the cafeteria a book called "1001 Ways to Cook Hamburger."
20. Dorie McCarthy leaves Mr. Allen her wig.
21. Barbara Clarke leaves Joyce Haynes her dirty Senior hat.
22. Karen Todd finally leaves the Nurses's Office.
23. Marie Paraspolo leaves Mr. Hyfantis with a year's supply of gum.
24. Calvin Walls leaves Mr. Troy his Goodwill tie rack.
25. Clifford Graham leaves his earring to Mr. Sweeney.
26. Cathy Hampton finally leaves the mirror in locker room 232.
27. Julie Sheldon leaves Mr. Alminas — AWAKE!
28. Wanda Gilreath leaves Mr. Forrant a whistle to call his class to attention.
29. Mr. Czelunznick's third period class leaves him some students who will laugh at his jokes.
30. To Mr. D — we say, "Hang In There."
31. Liz Randall leaves her coat with Mr. Trespas to any junior who will say that woman are superior to man.
32. The entire class leaves Mr. Allen a can of turtle wax and a buffer.
33. The Concert Choir leaves Herb Menzel passed out on the stage at Faith Church.
34. Mr. Allen's third period class leaves him a pair of binoculars so he can see who's being rushed into Wesson's Emergency Room.
35. Linda Daigle leaves her broken toe to next year's pain in the foot.
36. The Commerce Band leaves for Carnegie Hall with all four instruments.
37. Laura Kwolak leaves her chicken pox to any girl who likes surprises a week before the Junior Prom.
38. Peggy Sams leaves Dr. Midura a red blazer to complete the administrative trio.
39. Linda Rae leaves Mr. Gromally her key chair, "Take me, I'm yours."
40. Miss Hogan's homeroom leaves her a nervous wreck.
41. Dense Plefka leaves David Stover's Santa suit to future classes.
42. The Seniors leave Mr. Meacham, Mr. Tipton, and Mr. Troy still looking for people who take cuts in the lunch line.
43. Melissa Cole leaves nothing. She's taking it all with her.
44. Jane Casey leaves Mr. Daly a new society to play with in Sociology.
45. Debbie Burkhard leaves Mr. Tenzar her pet snake.
46. Karen Todd leaves Mr. Conchieri a perfect attendance record.
47. Verdi Labaff leaves her Bobo Vadnais to the hockey team.
48. Mrs. Abbott's seventh period study leaves her the secret to catching us while skipping her class.
49. To Mrs. Williams — we leave any freshman who could do gymnastics.
50. Debbie Burkhard leaves Mr. Ciesluk an assistant editor with less energy and more ability.
51. Carol Rioni leaves Ida Daniels a 4th period study to sleep in.
52. Brenda Chappell leaves her walk to some deserving Junior girl.
53. The Concert Choir leaves Mr. Conway a piano tuner.
54. Anne and Laura leave Mr. Albano to any two girls brave enough to take on the responsibility.
55. Lee Flebotte leaves Mr. Taylor a bottle of "Spain" to help him with the girls next year.
56. Miss Di Santi's homeroom leaves her a bag of bubblegum.
57. To Dr. Midura — we leave talking doll that says, "I'll call Mommy."
58. Denise St. Jacques and Peggy Creanza leave Mr. Troy a buckala sandwich.
59. Genella Matthews leaves Mrs. Carroll a smiley pin.
60. Judy Waldo leaves a book on "How to Wiggle through High School."
61. Miss McCleary's homeroom leaves her a tape recorder saying "Do you have your notes?"
62. Happiness is Karen Unwin graduating.
63. Brenda Yates leaves Miss Blakeslee an ounce of courage to face next year's homeroom.
64. Rebecca White leaves her sister Gloria to suffer it.
65. Mary Whalen leaves Mr. Czelunski an empty package of chocolate cookies.
66. Yvette Wright leaves her sister Mona a good place to hide when Mother visits the Counselor.
67. Calvin Walls leaves his romantic ways to his brother Melvin.
68. Donna Fettes leaves a gift certificate from her father's package store to all her teacher.
69. Besides the gift certificate, Donna Fettes leaves Miss Hogan her Rico Petrocelli button.
70. Lottie Newkirk and Sheila Gaskin leave their library passes to any Juniors who don't like studies.
71. Alan Fettes leaves the soccer team a year's supply of "spirits."
72. To Mr. Tipton — we leave eleven football uniforms and six guys to wear them.
73. Karen Henry leaves her seat in Miss Conway's class to her sister Connie.
74. Larry Daniels leaves hoping he never needs Mr. Cignoli for a reference.
75. The Seniors leave the center aisle of the auditorium to the Juniors.
76. To everyone — WE SAY, "THANKS!!!"

1972 Yearbook Staff

We, the Caduceus editorial staff, have endeavored to make this year's yearbook a truly joyful reminiscence of this past school year. It is the first time in the history of Commerce yearbooks that we have included color pictures — only one of the many new ideas of our excellent editor, John Parisi. We hope that his efforts and our hard work have succeeded in producing one of the better books on the market today — Caduceus '72.

SPORTS

Cheers for Commerce

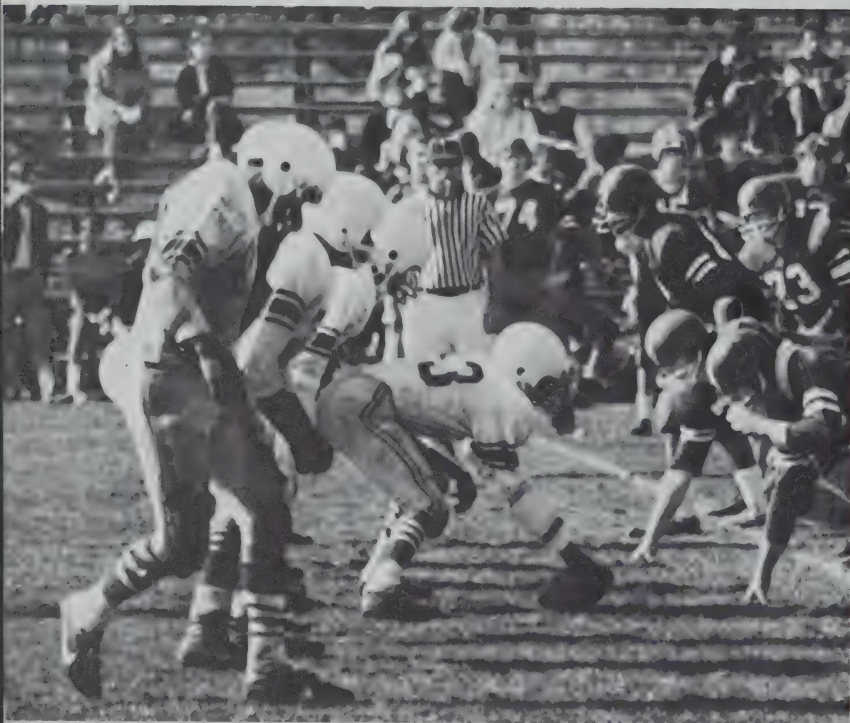

Special credit is given to the Commerce Cheerleaders because of their never ending spirit created at all our football and basketball games. It is their great enthusiasm that helps our boys to do their best, always knowing that they are backed by our cheering girls. This years captains are Anglea Chones and Linda Johnson.

Lacking an excessive amount of seniors, Raider Football was unable to salvage a win. This year was a campaign of rebuilding and gaining experience through hard hits. The Raiders were unable to demonstrate their full potential as the last two games of the season were canceled. One of the seasons highlights was when Henry Grenier was elected to the All City Team.

During this past season the players won the honor of compiling the most wins by a Commerce Baseball team against large school competition. Morsey Sykes, Dave Hess and Dave Sirois were rewarded for their hard work by being elected to the all-City First Team. Morsey Sykes was rewarded further by being selected to the All Western Mass. First Team. SEASON HIGHLIGHT — Defeated W. Mass. champion Cathedral.

Before going to Worcester to play in the Mass. semi-finals, they won the titles of City Champs and Western Mass. Champs. While in Worcester, they were eliminated in the first game of the semi-finals.

Having no seniors on the starting line-up this past season, they will all be back next year with another good shot at the State Championship.

CLASS HISTORY

FRESHMAN YEAR CLASS HISTORY

On September 7, 1969, 550 Freshmen walked through the doors of the High School of Commerce ready to enter into a whole new experience of facing the challenge of new goals, of learning, and of meeting those who would be part of our graduating class. We were introduced to Guidance Assemblies, G.O., the Trading Post, COMMERCE, the school newspaper, and all the activities which Commerce had to offer.

During the fall season, our soccer team defeated Tech for the first time in 21 years.

In the early part of November, the fear of rioting in other city schools spread to Commerce. When spectators were barred from the games, team and class spirit were somewhat dampened.

Everyone seemed to be in favor of the abolishment of the dress code that came at the end of November. Styles changed and everyone seemed to relax a little more.

On December 3, we attended an election rally for the officers who were to serve us during our freshman year. Elected were: Thomas Walker, President; Sue Heaton, Vice-President; and Diane Simmons, Secretary. Student Council members were: Donna Bortnick, Barbara Cabana, Brenda Chappell, Genella Matthews, Margaret Sams, and Leroy Scott.

The Freshman Class discussed plans for the future. A representative and an alternate were chosen from each homeroom to form the Freshman Executive Board.

During December a candy sale was held in which prizes were awarded to those students who sold the most. Ruth Goodwin, the top sales person, won a television set. The students who won radios were Debbie Fett, Wanda Holenworth, Diane Nicoll, Maria Zavala.

Before we knew it, it was Christmas and time for that vacation we had all been waiting for.

We returned to school ready to start the new year off right. The hockey team moved into second place in the Fay Division. The first half of the season was a disappointment for the basketball team, but eight wins in a row lifted their spirits at the season's end.

"The Age of Aquarius" was the theme for "Capers" 1970. It gave students an opportunity to display their talents.

Our freshman year was coming to an end, and we looked enthusiastically toward our junior year. Again we held elections for those who were to lead us through our important junior year. They were: Thomas Walker, President; Sue Heaton, Vice-President; and Elizabeth Randall, Secretary. Student Council members were: Linda Calabrese, Susan Arnold, Brenda Chappell, and Gail Daley.

JUNIOR YEAR CLASS HISTORY

On September 9, 1970 we stepped into the familiar halls of Commerce with the self-assured air of one who knows where he's going. We chatted with friends and waved to acquaintances before drifting into our new homerooms.

We slid easily into our new business and college courses. Of course, Drivers Education was a must since we all wanted our licenses as soon as possible. Soon another group of young drivers was on the road.

Probably the proudest day of our junior year was the day our class rings arrived. We could scarcely tear our eyes away from the gleaming orbs.

In no time at all half the year was gone, and everything began happening.

We were being rated by our teachers on our character. Those important cards could be the deciding factor on getting a job or being accepted by a college.

The campaign to redevelop the area adjacent to Commerce raged on. After returning from our midwinter vacation, we found half a dream had come true. The lot was now rid of two eyesores. We at once petitioned the city to purchase this lot for us, but with no immediate results.

To earn money for the traditional Junior Prom, we sponsored a Junior Class car wash. Participants in the activity were Mary Whalen, Mark Garvitt, Janet Sweeney, Cheryl DeVasier, Tom Walker, Sandy Taupier, and Peggy Sams. In addition to raising money, we boosted our class spirit.

"71 "Capers" took place April 16. Singing, dancing, and variety numbers with a cute, little imp acting between numbers was a group effort of all three classes. Members of the Junior Class who joined in the fun were David Jackson, Carolyn Sutton, Linda Daigle, Cindy Boisvert, and Pat Armstrong. The show ended with the song "Everything is Beautiful."

"Just My Imagination" was the theme for the Junior Prom. The queen, Bertha Lopez, reigned over the formal affair at High Point Motor Inn with her court. Linda Hill, Lynn Lajeunesse, Mary Whalen, and Sandra Scott. Monty and the Specialties provided the music. Everyone who attended had a wonderful time.

An innovation of the Junior Class was "Seventy-Two." The newsletter was designed to inform juniors of what was happening. Included in it were events and matters pertaining to juniors. Because of its success, it was continued as a senior newsletter.

As the end of the year drew near, we held elections for our Senior Class officers. Elected were: Thomas Walker, President; Sue Heaton, Vice-President; and Maureen Murphy, Secretary. Maureen Murphy was also elected as President of the Student Council. Other members included Brenda Chappell, Donna Pettes, Michael Jiles, Leroy Scott, Janice Quimby, and Gloria Watson.

The remainder of the year sped by with students taking college boards and seeking summer employment. We left in June with the happy thought of returning in the fall as seniors.

SENIOR YEAR CLASS HISTORY

On September 8, 1971, we once again entered the High School of Commerce, but this time as seniors, leaders of the school. It was hard to believe that we were again filling the corridors of Commerce, but this time for the last year. The thing uppermost in our minds as we headed for our homerooms was our status symbol, the Senior hat.

Our class spirit began rising when our soccer, basketball, and hockey teams began breaking records. A group of girls who formed a S-P-I-R-I-T Club, plus regular Commerce fans, backed our teams at the rallies and games.

An innovation this year was the establishment of a club meeting period once a month. The result was better attendance at meetings and the formation of some new clubs: the Drama Club and the Ski Club.

The Spurrllows performed for Commerce students on September 28. This group of singers and musicians sang a number of modern hit tunes and accompanied them with striking choreography. Songs such as "Happy Day," "He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother," and "Signs" were enthusiastically received by everyone.

The Editorial Staff of COMMERCE, the school newspaper, sponsored a school-wide Toy Drive to benefit students at Brightside. Toys donated by members of the student body were repaired and repainted by committees. The Future Teachers Club and the French Club donated yarn dolls, coloring books, and crayons. Needless to say, the group effort was successful.

The Senior Class, combined with the Juniors and Freshmen, held a very successful Christmas Dance at Stonehaven Motor Inn. Music was provided by Love's Revolution. Everyone who attended had a great time.

The Junior Class Newsletter was continued as a Senior Newsletter this year. It is published monthly or, as senior events become more frequent, whenever senior officers deem it necessary. The Newsletter proved a dependable, up-to-date source of information for the Class of '72.

For the first time the school yearbook, Caduceus, will be partly in color. The opening section will display color photographs of school activities.

After our final assembly, Class Day, on May 12, the traditional senior events begin. The Class Banquet is scheduled for May 13, and the Senior Prom will be held on May 27.

The Class of '72 will graduate on June 12.

The Senior Class of '72 would like to give our special thanks to Mr. Sweeney, Dr. Midura, Mr. Troy, and the faculty for their dedication, understanding, and aid, all of which guided us through our three years at the High School of Commerce.
